

It is not Sinclair Broadcasting's role to tell people who to vote for. This is a significant abuse of the air waves. Given that Sinclair has a direct financial interest in electing a president that will allow for more media concentration, it constitutes corruption. Their license should be revoked.